Leon Gathany (seated, center), also known as Mr. Sing-A-Long, accompanied by Elizabeth Turlington on piano, entertained at the Stephens County Senior Center on Tuesday, March 22. Gathany led the seniors in singing a treasure trove of favorite songs including "My Grandfather's Clock," "The Woodpecker Song," "Gold Mine in the Sky," "When I Grow Too Old to Dream," and "Home on the Range." Gathany sang a cappella on several songs. The Singing Farmers - Royce and Helen Farmer of Clermont - were special guests.
